November 21, 2014

No spelling words next week since it will only be a two day week! Enjoy the spelling break and have a relaxing weekend!

Weekly Update

Just a quick reminder that next week will be a two day week for students! There will be no school from Wednesday, November 26th through Friday, November 28th in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday. Enjoy the time with family and friends!

This week we have studied author's purpose during reading time, along with our continuing practice of using context clues to help us determine the meaning of unfamiliar words and checking for understanding while we read. Please encourage your child to stop themselves while they are reading to think about the text and check to make sure they can state what has happened in the text so far!

In math we have been as busy as ever working on our multiplication, division, and relating those two operations. We will soon be moving into time. Students will be expected to not only tell time to the minute, but also determine elapsed time.
